

Coach Paul Woolpert

About Coach Woolpert

Coach Paul Woolpert started his basketball coaching career in 1986. Over the course of the last 30 years, Woolpert has found great success coaching all over the world in the NBA, D-League, CBA, NBL and Korean Basketball League. The son of Hall of Fame Coach Phil Woolpert, Coach Paul has continuously used his lifetime of extensive basketball knowledge and experience to better all those around him in all capacities of the coaching profession.

Coaching Experience

2015-2017: Los Angeles D-Fenders Interim Head Coach and Assistant Coach	Stepped in as interim head coach for NBA D-League Showcase and road trip posting a 6-2 record. Worked closely with post players particularly David Foster and David Nwaba who both received NBA call-ups
2014-2015: Perth Wildcats( NBL) Interim Head Coach and Lead Assistant Coach	Focused on import player evaluation and recruitment while also preparing daily practice plans and opponent scouting reports.
2014: SK Knights (Korean Basketball League)	Worked with coaching staff on game strategies and player development while also developing practice plans and executing on court workouts.
2011-2013: Townsville Crocodiles (NBL), Head Coach	Worked hand-in-hand with the General Manager and Recruitment and Retention Committee to complete Roster. Organized and scheduled training camp and preseason schedule. Managed player development, strength and conditioning, and practice plans for season.

Coach Paul Woolpert

Career Coaching Highlights

- (2012) NBL iinet Coach of the Month
- CBA Championships, Yakima Sun Kings- 95', 00', 06', 07'
- CBA Championship, Sioux Falls Skyforce- 96'
- Stan Novak Coach of the Year Award- 2007, 2008
- CBA All-Star Game Coach- 99', 00', 07', 08'
- All-Time CBA record for best winning percentage in a season .895, 43-5 in 07'-08'

Players Coached

Ronney Turiaf, Shawn Livingston, Chucky Brown, Moochie Norris, Anthony Goldwire, David Vanterpool, Raja Bell, Anthony "Pig" Miller, Eldridge Recasner, Randy Livingston, Leon Smith, David Nwaba, Ryan Gomes.